EFM Supplier Code of Conduct

EFM including each of its divisions, business units, affiliates and subsidiaries, (collectively, “EFM”) is firmly committed to conducting business with the highest integrity and in compliance with the letter and spirit of the law. As an industry leader and a responsible business, EFM seeks to use its position to promote the highest standards for ethics and business conduct wherever EFM operates. As a supplier of products and/or services to EFM, your company (“Supplier”) is critical to EFM’s success, and in order for EFM to provide superior services in a responsible manner, EFM requires Supplier to comply with this Supplier Code of Conduct (this “Code”).

This Code sets forth EFM’s fundamental ethical and business conduct requirements for its suppliers. This Code is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all requirements to be followed by Supplier, but is intended to be a high level overview of such requirements. All references in this Code to “Laws” means all applicable laws, regulations, directives, rules, decrees, and governmental orders.

Supplier is responsible for ensuring that their directors, officers, employees, agents, representatives, suppliers, subcontractors, and other business partners understand, and comply with, the requirements set forth in this Code. Supplier will promptly notify EFM in writing of any known or suspected violation of this Code.

Supplier must never offer, promise, authorize, or provide, directly or indirectly, anything of value (including, without limitation, business gifts or courtesies) with the intent or effect of inducing anyone (including, without limitation, a EFM customer, EFM employee, or higher tier or sub-tier supplier) to forego their duties and provide unfair business advantage to EFM, Supplier, or others. Accordingly, Supplier will, and will cause its employees, representatives, and subcontractors to, comply with all Laws relating to anticorruption and anti-money laundering in all of the countries in which any affiliated business or associate of the Supplier provides products or services, directly or indirectly, and any other countries in which Supplier conducts business.

Unfair Business Practices. Supplier must not engage in any illegal anti-competitive conduct or deceptive trade practice for any reason whatsoever, whether on behalf of EFM, Supplier, or others. Accordingly, Supplier must never rig bids, fix prices, or provide or exchange customers, EFM’s, Supplier’s, or others’ competitively sensitive information (including, without limitation, price, cost, and technical data) with EFM’s competitors or competitors of Supplier. Supplier must also refrain from abusing their market power, whether for their benefit or for the benefit of others, by refusing to deal fairly, engaging in predatory or discriminatory pricing practices, conditioning the sale or provision of a particular product or service with that of another product or service, or undertaking similar abusive tactics. Further, Supplier must never make any misrepresentations relating to the products or services of EFM, Supplier or others. Similarly, Supplier must never denigrate EFM's competitors or Supplier's competitors, or their products or services.

Supplier shall retain personal information only for as long as necessary to fulfill the business related purposes in connection with the services being provided to EFM. Supplier may disclose personal information to third parties only as necessary to provide services to EFM or as may be required by Laws and Supplier shall take all appropriate actions to ensure that a third party protects personal information that EFM discloses to it. Supplier shall collect, use, maintain, disclose (internally and externally), and destroy personal information in a manner that limits the risk of loss, theft, misuse, or unauthorized access. Supplier shall dispose of personal information upon the completion of services to EFM or when no longer needed for the business related purposes.

As appropriate, Supplier's policy will be further defined at the regional and country level to prevent the exploitation of the local workforce. Supplier will be committed to being an ethical employer that strives to improve labor standards, respects its employees' contributions, and rewards them fairly.

6. Freedom of Association. Supplier will respect the rights of employees and comply with all Laws concerning freedom of association and collective bargaining.

Supplier must comply with all health, safety, and security Laws of the jurisdictions in which it does business and limit worker exposure to potential safety hazards (including, without limitation, electrical sources, fire, heat, vehicles, and fall hazards) through proper design, engineering and administrative controls, preventive maintenance and safe work procedures. When necessary to safely perform a job, Supplier will provide workers at no cost and as appropriate the proper personal protective equipment and ensure proper maintenance of the equipment. Supplier employees must be free to raise safety concerns without fear of EFM Compliance Verification. EFM does not assume any duty to monitor or ensure compliance with this Code. Supplier acknowledges and agrees that Supplier is solely responsible for full compliance with this Code by Supplier's directors, officers, employees, representatives, suppliers, contractors, and other business partners. Supplier will nonetheless permit EFM and/or its representatives to assess Supplier's compliance with the expectations set forth in this Code when rendering services or furnishing products for EFM. Such assessments may include, without limitation, on-site inspection of Supplier facilities and review of related Supplier information, including books, records, certifications, permits, and other documentation evidencing Supplier's compliance with this Code. Supplier will also fully cooperate with EFM in such assessments, and Supplier will promptly correct any non-conformances identified during such assessments.
